Where are you going to do it, how many will you be doing it with (must be more than 5), type of accommodation (is it shared with the group)?

What are your goals? What do you want to achieve?

Who is going to support and assess you?

What is this programme planner for?
When completing each section of your DofE programme, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet will help you to plan your DofE programme for the Residential section. For help and support either see your DofE Leader or visit DofE.org/residential

What is the Residential section about?
Going on a residential gives you the chance to learn how to work with people from different backgrounds and build confidence living in new environments.

How long should I do the residential for?
The residential activity should normally take place over at least five consecutive days with a minimum of four nights spent away.
