"At All Saints we are hugely proud of our relationship with The Duke of Edinburgh's Award. DoE provides our students with a range of valuable experiences and develops the resilience and high aspirations they need to be the best they can be."

Gary Futcher; Headteacher, All Saints Academy Plymouth

"It has been wonderful to see so many students take on the challenge of a Duke of Edinburgh's Award in our school over the last few years. Our girls appreciate how valuable an Award it is in terms of their own personal development. There has been a clear growth in the communal spirit of the school with more clubs being supported in school and a veritable army of student volunteers out in our local community. The DoE provides a clear link to our school motto, "For Life, Not School We Learn". The DoE is definitely here to stay at PHSG."

Mary Utton; Headteacher, Plymouth High School for Girls

"The Duke of Edinburgh's Award provides our students with a wide range of opportunities and experiences to broaden their skills and education. As a direct result of their participation in the Award, at all levels, students develop confidence, leadership and self-esteem: key qualities for success in the future. The DoE has a highly valued and unique role in our educational provision and we encourage as many students as possible to get involved and benefit from the experience of being a Duke of Edinburgh's Award participant."

Jan Woodhouse; Headteacher, St Ives School

"Being able to take part in The Duke of Edinburgh's Award has given students from all backgrounds and talents the motivation and confidence to challenge themselves whilst developing lifelong skills. Our students have made a significant impact to both the school and local community and in return have grown considerably as individuals."

Matthew Sheills; DoE Manager, Sir Bernard Lovell Academy

"More than ever, I believe we have a responsibility to help our students become well-rounded citizens and reach their full potential. By providing experiences and opportunities beyond the classroom we can help equip them with the additional skills necessary to succeed in life and contribute positively to our society. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award plays a key part in helping us achieve this as it embraces core values we share and I am delighted to see so many of our students embark on their DoE Award with us each year."

Alun Williams; Headteacher and CEO, Midsomer Norton Schools Partnership

"The DoE is a fantastic opportunity for our students. It allows them to develop knowledge and skills that will be helpful as they progress on to the next stage of their education. It equips them with skills for life. The DoE is a memorable experience from their time at school because of the opportunities it provides for them. I only thank all my staff and the staff at the DoE for all their support without whom the scheme would not run."

Richard Gilpin; Headteacher, Pittville School

Ben Antell; Executive Principal, Glenmoor and Winton Academies

The DofE in action

Let it go

Four 16th formers from Newent Community School were highly satisfactory and thrown into action as the 16-year-old owners of a new business. They are keen to open their business on a larger scale and have already raised £10,000 to help cover the costs of setting up. The girls are now planning to expand the business and are looking for investors to support their venture.

Fair exchange

Kempston Rugs from Llandrindod Wells, are planning a 10-day expedition to the UK to take part in a Gold Duke of Edinburgh expedition with the Robert Cambell Trust. The expedition is their first and will be the first time they have taken part in a DofE expedition.

Keep taking the tablets

Abingdon Open Air Festival has been granted a Diamond Award by the DofE's Diamond Award scheme. The award is given to organisations that have supported DofE participants.

Cream of the crop

Saltash Open Air Festival (SOAF) is a community-owned organisation that provides a platform for young people to showcase their talent. The festival is in its 21st year and has been a success for the local community.

Invaluable blessings

Money raised during the DofE Diamond Anniversary year in 2010 has been described as an "invaluable blessing" by those who are benefiting from it.

Community College in the heart of the community

Three-month swing

Kempston Rugs from Llandrindod Wells, are planning a 10-day expedition to the UK to take part in a Gold Duke of Edinburgh expedition with the Robert Cambell Trust. The expedition is their first and will be the first time they have taken part in a DofE expedition.

The recipe for success

Learning to cook for her Duke of Edinburgh section prompted Georgie Thomas of Balaclava School in Cheamham, to write her own cookbook. Georgie says: "I spent a lot of time cooking and I really enjoyed doing it. I now have a lot of different recipes that I can use in my own time. This has been a great experience for me and I hope that it will help others to enjoy cooking as well."
