

INTRODUCTION TO THE EXPEDITION SECTION

Introduction to the Expedition section e-learning: learning outcomes

Module aim:

This module will introduce you to the DofE's Expedition section and provide an understanding of the programme requirements for a DofE Expedition. It will prepare you to attend the DofE's Expedition Supervisor Training Course (ESTC) or the DofE Expedition Skills (DES) course.

Learning outcomes	By the end of the session delegates will be able to:
To understand the ethos of the Expedition section – the aims, principles and benefits.	Explain the underlying principles of the Expedition section.
To understand the programme requirements of the Expedition section.	State the DofE programme requirements, which must be met in order to complete the Expedition section.
To list the five stages of the expedition process.	Understand how expeditions should be prepared for, run and assessed.
To explain how Licensed Organisations contribute to the delivery of expeditions.	Explain the role of Licensed Organisations in running expeditions.
To explain the different adult roles involved in the delivery of expeditions.	Understand the ways in which adults are involved in expedition delivery.
To make use of expedition resources, as suitable to support your role.	Locate the expedition resources available to provide them with suitable further support.
To explain the options for putting the e-learning into practice.	Appreciate the future training and DofE delivery options available to them.

The Introduction to the Expedition section e-learning is available from DofETraining.org.