

Invite for other staff in the school / centre to take part in research

Dear colleagues

As you know, many of our students do their DofE and our school / centre has been invited to help with some research about it. The project is trying to determine how schools / centres like ours support students to do their DofE and what our students gain from taking part.

Could you please spare a few minutes to complete a short survey to help with this research? Your feedback is invaluable; not only will it help build a national picture of how young people with special needs and disabilities benefit from doing their DofE but also help shape and prioritise support that the DofE charity offers to special schools /centres.

The survey is being conducted by Chrysalis Research, an independent research company, on behalf of the DofE. It is anonymous and completely confidential.
