DofE.org

Volunteering with Approved Activity Providers

Approved Activity Providers (AAPs) are organisations whose Volunteering section opportunities have been approved by the DofE as meeting our sectional conditions and can count towards the achievement of a DofE Award.

AAPs are able to provide Assessors and sign off the section. The DofE has approved that these opportunities meet DofE sectional requirements; please note it is the responsibility of the participant's parent/carer to evaluate the safeguarding and health and safety policies the organisation has, to ensure the safety of their child. For more information please go to DofE.org/leaders/safeguarding. The DofE can give no assurances as to the financial stability of an AAP.

For a full list of Volunteering AAPs go to: DofE.org/opportunity-finder/approvedactivity-provider.

VOLUNTEERING WITH APPROVED ACTIVITY PROVIDERS WORKING WITH THE ENVIRONMENT OR ANIMALS

RSPB

The RSPB is a UK charity working to secure a healthy environment for birds and all wildlife.

It is the largest nature conservation charity in the country, consistently delivering successful conservation, forging powerful new partnerships with other organisations and inspiring others to stand up and give nature the home it deserves.

POSITION: RSPB YOUNG VOLUNTEER

Minimum age: 14+

Where it takes place: UK Wide

Brief description of the role: There are more than 12,000 fantastic volunteers and between them, they contribute almost one million hours every year! Our volunteering roles can be tailored to your skills, interests and circumstances.

You do not have to be an RSPB member to volunteer with us, you don't even have to be a bird or wildlife expert to volunteer for us. There are many ways you can get involved with our work. If you don't know a robin from a redwing, it really doesn't matter.

The Conservation Volunteers

The Conservation Volunteers bring people together to create, improve and care for green spaces. From school grounds and hospital grounds to waterways, wetlands, and woodlands, we connect people to the green spaces that form a vital part of any healthy, happy community.

POSITION: I DIG TREES VOLUNTEER Minimum age: 16+

Where it takes place: London or Leeds

Brief description of the role: Your tree planting programme will consist of four segments of approximately three months each:

Firstly, you will spend time getting to know TCV and our tree planting initiative, I Dig Trees. You will then find a community organisation to carry out a tree planting day with.

Next, you will spend a day with TCV to see what a tree planting day looks like in action. You can then take this experience and implement it by carrying out your tree planting day with your partner organisation.

After a successful tree planting, you'll spend some more time with TCV learning about tree maintenance which you'll then pass on to the caretaker of your planted trees.

Finally, having experienced the initiative first hand, you will carry out a small fundraising activity that will go towards I Dig Trees.

VOLUNTEERING WITH APPROVED ACTIVITY PROVIDERS COACHING, TEACHING AND LEADERSHIP

The Literacy Pirates

The Literacy Pirates is an educational charity that takes children on voyages as readers and writers. We develop the literacy, confidence and perseverance of children who are falling behind in class and have fewer opportunities in their personal lives, so that they can succeed at school and beyond.

Our after-school programmes, led by teachers, offer one to one and small group attention from trained volunteers, giving them the confidence to unfurl their sails. By welcoming them into our joyful spaces, publishing their work in the real world, and celebrating everything they do, we take children on adventures in learning and transform them into published authors!

Edukid

Edukid works with children living in extreme poverty in Asia, Africa and South America. We exist to break down the barriers to education that these children face. We do this by working with local communities to find sustainable models of addressing issues and establishing projects that link in with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

As part of the DofE volunteering programme, you will explore your role as a global citizen and discover how you can make positive changes for those living in extreme poverty.

POSITION: GLOBAL CITIZEN Minimum age: no minimum Where it takes place: Remote (from home)

Brief description of the role: Passionate about making the world a better place? Interested in equality and opportunity for every individual? Through volunteering with Edukid, we want to show you that you can make huge ripples of change, even within communities based overseas. You are a global citizen with the power to transform lives through relatively small actions. So, the next question is: how? Find out by enrolling with us, free of charge, from home and at your own pace!

Scope

We are a disability equality charity in England and Wales. We provide practical information and emotional support when it's most needed and campaign relentlessly to create a fairer society.

POSITION: SHOP VOLUNTEER

Minimum age: 14+

Where it takes place: Charity shop. We have over 170 shops in England and Wales. Find your nearest one here: scope.org.uk/shops/shop-directory

Brief description of the role: You will be vital to the work of your local Scope shop, generating income and raising awareness of our work in your local community charity shop. There are lots of opportunities to develop skills in customer service, teamwork and retail operations as well as gaining experience of a large national charity.

Your role may include:

- Sorting and organising goods for sale
- Helping to display stock and window dressing
- Tidying and cleaning the shop
- Welcoming and supporting customers
- Steaming clothes so they look better for customers

You will receive an induction and training when you start and we are flexible on the times you would like to volunteer. We'd love your help for a couple of hours a week, but if you can give more time that would help us even more.

We particularly welcome applications from disabled people. Equality and inclusion are at the heart of Scope's mission. We are committed to creating a diverse and inclusive environment for all volunteers.
