Our strategy

Access

Relevance

Impact

Quality

Access

DofE is Achievable by all
Help you to reduce barriers to participation

Relevance

Young people are at the heart of the DofE – we are looking to support young people to help them have a positive impact.

Quality

Ensure young people experience a high-quality programme – Training and support of School staff and volunteers

Impact

Help you to share the successes of your young people and help you to evidence your KPI's

National Youth Work Outcomes and Skills Framework

How we can map the DofE award to the National Youth Workout Outcomes and Skills Framework

YOUTH WITHOUT LIMITS

National Youth Work Outcomes and Skills Framework

Nature and Purpose of Youth Work:

Youth work is an educational practice that contributes to young people's learning and development. It is an inclusive and empowering approach where:

- The work must build from where young people are
- Young people and youth workers are recognised as partners in a learning process
- Young people choose to participate

Youth Work practice is underpinned by:

- CLD Competences
- CLD Values and Code of Ethics
- Youth Work National Occupational Standards

Youth Work plays a key role in delivering Scotland's national outcomes, in particular:

Children and Young People

We grow up loved, safe and respected so that we realise our full potential

Education

We are well educated, skilled and able to contribute to society

Health

We are healthy and active

An Example from Scouts Scotland
